

07:10:01 From Doug Neill : Links from last week: <https://verbaltovisual.com/bionics-plus/>

07:11:49 From Anne Vanhoestenberghé : "reflectively"
Ie, I did not do any sketches, but I looked at visual representations in science with more attention.

07:12:09 From Zoe Hancox : Successes: learnt to break ideas into more simpler blocks and make ideas more fun.
Challenges: initially it was hard to think of where to start

07:12:15 From Sami Rahman : great!
I had to work on a report for uni and was stuck on how to piece certain parts together in writing. I "drew" it out and it helped

I used draw.io + flaticons because I prefer digital drawing

07:12:52 From Christopher : Challenge: tasked with giving three perspectives to an activity, to capture how same thing means different things to different people

07:15:20 From Rajintha (Raj) Gunawardena : My apologies for joining late, was coming from another meeting.

07:17:27 From Doug Neill : Map of Emotions: <https://youtu.be/d31y2J-jpfU?si=hz2P1NUG5qkgqJAK>

07:23:02 From Faustina Hwang : Reacted to "great!"
I had to wor..." with 👍

07:57:27 From Sami Rahman : Sorry, I need to drop because Im needed at work. Will watch recording and make a visual for a paper for next week

08:07:25 From Christopher : Could you symbolise the harder movement through adding an image of a weight on the arm?

08:30:38 From Anne Vanhoestenberghé : thanks

08:31:01 From Tala Masalehdan : Could you please share the QR code

08:32:31 From Tala Masalehdan : Sorry I couldn't insert the code could you please show it again?

08:39:16 From Joao Valente : Thank you very much!

08:39:20 From Rajintha (Raj) Gunawardena : Thank you so much Doug for the wonderful session.

08:39:31 From Rajintha (Raj) Gunawardena : Take care
